

Non Terrestrial Artifacts in our Solar System and some estimates on Drake equation parameters

We have not yet discovered any technology of extraterrestrial origin, but how sure can we be that the Solar System contains none of these artifacts? The talk will discuss the likelihood of such artifacts and our planned search methodology.

I will also briefly discuss, time permitting, new estimates on the Drake equation parameters combining results from recent exoplanet discoveries.

